

F-2015-00207- number of donors before and after the 2005 anonymity law change

13th July 2015

Summary of request

You have requested the number of new registered sperm donors before and after the law was changed in 2005 removing a donor's right to anonymity and the arguments for and against this change.

HFEA response

This information is available on our website at <http://www.hfea.gov.uk/9370.html>. The attached spreadsheet has been drawn from the egg and sperm donation in the UK 2012 – 2013.

Freedom of Information legislation requires a Public Authority to supply only information and data it hold. It does not relate to cases for or against, opinions or arguments. As such this part of your request does not fall under the scope of the Freedom of Information Act (2000).